LATEST NOTE BROUGHT KING TO THE CAPITAL

The Allies Are Preparing to Control the Greek Navy and All Her Public Utilities To Be Used in the War—They Have Already Taken Three Battleships—The Last Note of the Allies on Their Demands Sent the Greek King Hurrying to His Palace—Germans Claim to Have Defeated the Russians in Galicia—French Made Minor Gains on Somme Front—The Serbians Have Checked the Bulgarians Counter Attacks.

London, Oct. 17.—Vice Admiral Fournet, commander of the Anglo-French fleet in the Mediterranean, has handed a note to the Greek government of an extremely grave character, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens.

Following the presentation of the note, King Constantine came to the capital in haste from the royal residence at Tatoi.

The entente allies have taken over the Greek battleships Kitika and Lemnos, which were formerly the United States battleships Idaho and Mississippi, respectively, and the battleship Averoff, says another Reuter dispatch.

War Summary.

London, Oct. 17.—The Teutonic troops in a heavy counter movement are attacking the Russian lines in the region southeast of Lemberg, Petrograd announces. The attacks were launched after bombardments of great intensity five miles north of Halicz. The Russians took fifty prisoners and one machine gun during the fighting.

Another group of houses in the village of Hally-Saillisel, on the Somme front, was captured last night by the French, Paris announces.

A strong German counter attack was repulsed.

Violent artillery fighting is in progress on the Macedonian front in the region of the Cerna river.

The Serbians have checked the Bulgarian counter attacks.

Berlin announces a heavy defeat for the Russians in Galicia, which presumably resulted from the counter attack mentioned in the Petrograd statement. Trenches on a mile and a quarter front were taken, the statement says, as well as 1,900 prisoners.

On the French front, Berlin comments that the allied attacks on the rear of Guede Court broke down under the German fire.

T. R. WATSON DENIED CHANGE OF VENUE

Motion Overruled by Judge Monroe. Case Will Be Called for Trial at Waco Thursday Morning.

Waco, Texas, October 17.—T. R. Watson, the banker from Teague, indicted by the McLennan county grand jury for the murder of John S. Patterson, commissioner of banking and insurance, will be tried in Waco.

Judge Richard I. Monroe of the Fifty-fourth district court, overruled a motion Monday night for a change of venue.

Attorneys for Watson had been presenting evidence for one solid week in an effort to prove to the court that it would be impossible for their client to obtain a fair and impartial trial here.

The case will be called for trial Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

Unless a continuance of the case is asked for by the defense and granted by the court, the work of selecting a jury will be commenced.

Long Branch, Oct. 17.—President Wilson announced today that his efforts to bring about an agreement among the belligerents to allow relief supplies to be sent to Poland had failed.

McCormick, a wealthy Chicagoan, in a pamphlet received here. The role of the neutral countries would not be that of mediators, but of custodians and transfer agents.

PROLONGED DROUTH BROKEN LAST NIGHT

First Rainfall for Nine Weeks Was Recorded Last Night—Precipitation .90 of an Inch.

After a drouth lasting nine weeks to a day, Bryan and vicinity was visited by a good, slow rain last night which, according to the local weather forecaster, John Daly, Jr., amounted to .90 of an inch. The rain will do good in many ways. Lots of people have planted fall gardens and the seeds have remained in the ground without sprouting, inasmuch as this is the first drop of rain here for nine weeks. The one thing above all else, the dust was brought down last night and one can get out now in the open and take a breath of real fresh, pure air, thanks to Jupiter Pluvius. The fact that the rain came as it did, slow and drizzling, it will not damage the cotton yet in the fields.

20-CENT COTTON FULLY EXPECTED

Monday's Prices Showed 20-Point Advance or Rise of $1 a Bale. Sales Were Small.

The cotton market continues to make new high records and the belief is getting to be pretty general now that the upward tendency is not going to stop this side of 20 cents. Monday prices in Houston advanced 20 points, or $1 a bale, sending middling to 17.20 cents per pound, the highest recorded since 1872. At this price a bale of middling is worth $36.

Middling fair grade was quoted above 18 cents in Houston. Sales were comparatively small, 1,541 bales on the spot; 3,447 bales to arrive and 100 bales f. o. b.

Other spot markets advanced, Galveston middling going to 17.30 cents, New York to 17.80 cents, and New Orleans to 17 cents.

New high records were scored in the future division also. July and May quotations in New York crossed the 18-cent mark. All positions sold above 17 cents. The firm and higher cables from Liverpool, reports of too much rain in the belt and less apprehension of new submarine attacks were factors contributing to the advance in futures. The warning that the hurricane might strike the gulf coast also exercised some influence over buyers.—Houston Post.
